A variety of novel 4-aminopyridyl mono- and dimers (denoted as 1-6) have been synthesized from 4-pyridyl alkanenitriles and 4-aminobenzaldehyde, and the polymers with crown-ether units (denoted as HCPs) were self-assembled in acetonitrile. The HCPs show four absorption bands in the visible region. They also display selective and sensitive colorimetric and fluorescence sensing of Cu2+ ions.Čujnsko Čujnsko () is a village in the Municipality of Prešov in northeastern Slovakia. It is the birthplace of the late Slovak journalist Miroslav Šalomil. History Inhabited since Stone Age, the place got its current name during 1789-1792, when the area came under the Hungarian Partition. Until 1923 it was part of Záhony District. Čujns

The new map of American economic inequality - sogen ====== satysin So how come the typical white family on welfare in Virginia has a better standard of living than the median income white family in Mississippi in America? americans-live-in-the-chichest-places-in-the-us/?utm_term=.17ef4830c101) ~~~ melling Average household income for non-Hispanic whites in Virginia vs Mississippi: [$33,472 vs $32,330 [hispanic-1-income-in-d... $36,492 vs $35,158 It's absolutely true that the rich have disproportionate advantages in the US. There aren't any obvious common sense reasons for this. Many successful hackers come from poor neighborhoods in the US. One could argue that poor people don't have the time to create wealth, or there aren't enough entrepreneurs from poor neighborhoods. Perhaps technology has eliminated the middle class. But I think we can take it
