You are a visitor to the lower levels of the world of BELOW, where the remnants of a past civilization are buried below the surface. As the visitor, you must travel through a series of ethereal subterranean chambers seeking clues to the civilization's old technology. "BELOW's sweeping atmospheric are only surpassed by his penchant for melody. Both are his strengths." -- Ramiro Santos, PODCAST AMBIENCE Features: MAIN STAGE ► A rich, immersive original soundtrack, from the first to the last of the main chamber sequences. Beneath the player, fleeting soundscapes and rhythmic intricacies emerge and give way to atmospheric landscapes. Playable instruments (flute, piano, bagpipes, synthesizer, clavichord) form vibrant pillars that support the ethereal ambience. A few chirping bird avian vocalizations are also included here. ► Intricate and immersive: the scoring for BELOW uses more than forty pieces of original music to convey the mood, emotion, and atmosphere of the game. ► The player can choose to listen to only the soundtrack, or play the orchestral passages along with the development of the game. SECONDARY STAGE ► Strips that merge to form the main theme of the game. These are composed with a simple intro, a perfect cadence, and a coda. ► The player is offered a menu of vocal harmonizations. These will be intonated by the Ambient Library, with a custom artwork for each voice. ► A studio version of the main theme, with a small orchestral accompaniment. ► A cinematic version of the main theme, with various different instruments. More information: Key features: - More than 40 minutes of playtime, with 70 unique themes and new musical ideas added since the last version. - A variety of instrumental compositions and new arrangements of classical and electronic sounds. - Six new optional soundtracks: user-defined, voiced by Jim Guthrie. - Three collections of harmonized voices (with new custom artworks). - Instruction videos for each track included. - A separate lesson file with interactive videos and composer's insights. - 4 sample songs, including "BELOW" Game theme. - 1 user guide. - An installer for the soundtrack, including

What's new in RuneTech:

CD for Europe 15-16 2013, Berlin For the first part of the Soundtrack CD set, featuring the full band and guest musicians, visit the following web site: SoundtrackCD1

SoundtrackCD1 gives acoustic portraits of each song with guests, a download code, and the band's logo. For the second part of the Soundtrack CD set: you will be able to download the MP3 files for each song. SoundtrackCD2 will contain a downloadable selection of live recordings of the songs that appear on the soundtrack, plus 2 bonus tracks we recorded for the CD: "Circles" and "Unsung". The first part of the CD contains some of the previous material, with "Germany" as a bonus track. These new versions are different from the ones we had already performed but the songs have been rewritten. We recorded a new percussion arrangement, and the songs are performed with the focus on lyrics rather than the guitar sound, accompanied with direct readings of the lyrics. SoundtrackCD3 contains the live recording of the full concert in Moscow. This is a DVD-quality version, MP4, without any compression. There will be a download code. As we have not yet made a track of The Engineer live in London, if you would like, we would be happy to make something for you. The Drummer will sing his Vocal version of "Talkin' To Myself", as well. This Vocal interpretation, the Doktor and his project record some vocals and we all shoot an overdub. Bill Gates Is A Scam Founder Of Today

In today's news, billionaire Bill Gates has removed the founder of the first modern computer, Bill Gates Sr, from the board of directors of Microsoft. Bill has taken over the company and it seems that he is sincere in his takeover.

"We may take another look at Microsoft, at least that's what he said. Wow, no more Bill Gates Sr, who founded Microsoft? He was a good guy. And it was so far away. I must say, I heard about that a while ago. I'm glad that the story has changed. It must be a great relief to the people that do not like it. Since it's like that. At least that's how it was written." said Bill Gates Sr. He then went on to ask one of his board members to sit out so there will be two seats left.
