.1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates generally to smoking articles, such as cigarettes, and more particularly to smoking articles having a cylindrical filter containing multiple channels in the wrapper, a tipping paper enclosing the filter, and a segment of segmented cladding surrounding the filter. The segmented cladding has an irregular segmentation where the width of the segments is different and it has a variable length. More specifically, the present invention relates to smoking articles of which the segmented cladding has a segmentation length that is between 0.2 inches and 0.3 inches and the segments are 3 inches wide and 2 inches long and the channel depth in the tipping paper is 0.05 inches. 2. Description of Related Art Most commercially marketed smoking articles, such as cigarettes, have employed filters containing filter elements in order to reduce the level of unwanted constituents in tobacco smoke. Typical filter elements include those having activated charcoal particles, and those having chemical agents such as menthol or others, which can provide cooling and freshening sensations during smoking. Csc Struds V11 Crack CocaineLetter: Media, social change leaders must join in gun violence effort Social change leaders are not necessarily media leaders, but media leaders are acutely aware of the powerful role of the press in advancing civil and human rights. That means they are well-aware of what the role of the media is with regard to reducing gun violence. Social change leaders are not necessarily media leaders, but media leaders are acutely aware of the powerful role of the press in advancing civil and human rights. That means they are well-aware of what the role of the media is with regard to reducing gun violence. As we struggle to solve the problem of gun violence in this country, we must also be honest about the role that manufacturers and distributors have played in creating a fractured society plagued by killing. Similarly, we should be honest about the role of the gun lobby in creating a political economy that attempts to force us to live in fear. Advertisement We know that gun manufacturers not only make guns but also make a profit by selling them. They not only provide free ammunition but also are lobbying hard to maintain the sale of assault weapons and high-capacity magazines. The political economy of the gun lobby is one of protection of profit. We all understand that merely putting new restrictions on the sale of high-capacity magazines and assault weapons is insufficient to end this epidemic of gun violence. We need an economic system that ensures that these weapons are not freely sold. And that means we need political action. Not to put new regulations on gun manufacturers and distributors, but to reform the political economy that protects them. We need new laws that hold gun companies accountable for making these weapons. As a social change leader, I support comprehensive reform to ensure that these weapons are not available and that we can take steps to ensure that good people are not killed. Mary Jane Mullaly, Co-Chair, Social Change Campaign, National Black Caucus of State LegislatorsIt looks like we're seeing the beginning of a shift in focus from the natural disaster relief to the ongoing humanitarian efforts. Infrastructure development, disaster response and rebuilding, and climate change research are the most prominent of the activities to be funded by the Global Climate Change Initiative (GCCII).
